Municipal Election 2018 Voter Turnout Calculations:

Preliminary List – 11,094 electors

Additions/Deletions By Office/MPAC Updates (October 23/18) – (-153 electors)

Total Electors – 11,094 - 153 = 10,941 total electors

Total Number of Electors Voting in 2018 Municipal Elections = 4,616

Therefore, percentage voter turnout for 2018 municipal elections was:

$4,616/10,941 = 42.2\%$

This represents an increase of 13.4% in percentage voter turnout when compared to the 2014 municipal elections.

The number of 2018 municipal electors that voted compared to the number of 2014 municipal electors that voted increased by 1,335 electors, from 3,281 electors in the 2014 municipal election, to 4,616 electors in the 2018 municipal election. This represents an overall percentage increase of 40.7% in terms of the number of electors that voted in the 2018 municipal election compared to the number of electors that voted in the 2014 municipal election.
