Other Business and Federation News

Kim Storz reported the Durham Branch has been very busy since opening in October 2016. During the month of March the circulation has increased by 36% over March 2016 and visits have increased 30% over March 2016. We had 46 new patron cards in March, which is the same total as the whole first quarter in 2016.

We will celebrate Canada's 150th birthday by providing the 150th new library cardholder with a prize.

It was discussed we should consider increasing the budget for advertising and professional development for volunteers and outreach.
