West Grey announces new Manager, Parks, Recreation & Culture

WEST GREY, Ontario – As West Grey prepares for growth and continues its commitment to community service, the municipality is pleased to announce Stephanie Pavao has joined the team as the new Manager, Parks, Recreation & Culture.

“Council and I are pleased to welcome Stephanie and look forward to advancing the parks, recreation and culture opportunities in West Grey” said Mayor Kevin Eccles. “Stephanie’s impressive background, including developing successful partnerships, is a perfect match to the goals of Council and West Grey’s administration.”

Stephanie holds a Bachelor of Recreation and Leisure Studies degree, a Business Marketing diploma and a Parks and Recreation Management certificate. She has over a decade of municipal parks and recreation experience.

“I look forward to working with Stephanie and building on the excellent work of West Grey’s recreation staff, Parks and Recreation Committees, and many, many volunteers,” said Laura Johnston, CAO, West Grey.

Stephanie joined the municipality on June 25, 2018.
